A 500-seat dining hall, Roadrunner Cafe, opened in 2005 with a contemporary feel and two outdoor dining patios. Air Rowdy, the university's wireless Internet service, is live in the cafe, which features a variety of food choices.

Every step forward ... is a step closer. Football is coming to UTSA! But before the Roadrunners can take the field, we need your help! Students have already stepped up to raise their student fee to help bring football to Campus. Show support for your team by stepping up to give a gift today!

GIVING TO ATHLETICS

Being a Roadrunner is more than having a degree to hang on your wall. It's a mind-set, a spirit and a source of pride that only those who bleed orange and blue can truly understand.

The Roadrunner Athletic Fund is supported by alumni, fans, faculty, staff and friends of UTSA. Your donation to the Roadrunner Athletic Fund directly supports our student-athletes and sports programs. UTSA's goal is to develop champions in the classroom and on the field. Your financial commitment makes this possible.

How YOUR GIFT HELPS

Your support through the Roadrunner Athletic Fund is used to provide scholarships and offset the cost of UTSA's 17 intercollegiate sports programs. Below are some examples of ways your giving can help.

THE NCAA RULES AND FANS

Compliance with NCAA rules is one of the highest priorities for our athletics program and institution. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Texas at San Antonio is accountable for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best-intentioned action on a fan's part may be a violation of NCAA rules. Please contact the UTSA Compliance Office if you have any questions concerning what is permissible. Inquiries should be directed to the UTSA Compliance Office at this address:

UTSA Compliance Office Intercollegiate Athletics One UTSA Circle San Antonio, TX 78249 Phone: (210) 458-5493

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS

A "representative of UTSA's athletics interests," or booster, is anyone who:

• Has ever participated in or is currently a member of the various athletics department support groups;

• Has made a donation to the athletics program;

• Has helped arrange summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes; or

• Has been involved, in anyway, in the promotion of UTSA's athletics program

EXTRA BENEFITS

NCAA COMPLIANCE

Prospective and current studentathletes may not receive extra benefits. An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or representative of the institution's athletic interests to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

• An employment arrangement for a prospect's relatives;

• Gifts of clothing or equipment;

• Cosigning of loans;

• Providing loans to a prospect's relatives or friends;

• Cash or like items;

• Use of an automobile;

• Any tangible items, including merchandise;

• Free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type;

- Free or reduced-cost housing
- Use of a college's athletic equipment;

• Sponsorship of or arrangement for an awards banquet for high school, prep school or two-year college athletes by a college, athletics representative or its alumni groups;

• Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher then the wages paid for similar work; and

• Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed.

RECRUITING

Only coaches and athletics department staff may be involved in the recruiting process. Athletic representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective studentathlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter, e-mail, or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at The University of Texas at San Antonio. This prohibition remains in effect even after the prospect signs a national letter-of-intent (scholarship offer). You can do your part by forwarding names of any potential recruits to the UTSA coaching staffs.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

A prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade. You can become a prospect even if you have not started the ninth grade, if a college gives you or your relatives any financial aid help or other benefits that it does not give others.

Before a prospect can make an official visit to UTSA, he/she must present (1) a score from a PSAT, SAT or ACT test (through an official high school or testing agency), (2) an academic transcript, and (3) must register with the NCAA Eligibility Center and must be placed on the institution's Institution Request List with the NCAA Eligibility Center.

VISITING UTSA

OFFICIAL VISIT:

An "official visit" is a visit paid in whole or in part by the university and cannot exceed 48 hours in length. A prospect can make a total of five official visits, with a limit of only one per university.

UNOFFICIAL VISIT:

An "unofficial visit" is a visit made at the prospect's own expense. The university may provide (a) three complimentary tickets to an oncampus athletics event in which the university's team is competing and (b) transportation to view off-campus practice and competition sites within a 30-mile radius. Prospects can make as many unofficial visits as they want.

Season Outlook

Season Outlook

A year removed from celebrating back-to-back Southland Conference Tournament titles, head coach Rae Rippetoe-Blair has the UTSA women's basketball program ready to make a run at a third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons.

Picked by head coaches and sports information directors to win the conference's west division, the Roadrunners return 10 letterwinners from their 2009-10 squad that finished the season with a 16-14 overall record, including a 10-6 Southland mark. Experience will not be an issue for UTSA this season, as the team's returners have a collective 18 years of Division I competition under their belts.

"I'm very excited about this team," Rippetoe-Blair said. "I think there is so much depth on this roster, which is something we haven't had in a long time. The fact that we don't have to play people for 40 minutes is exciting."

Blair's returnees include seniors Kelsey Ansley, Alysse Davis, Ashleigh Franklin, Amber Gregg and Kameisha Johnson, junior Whitney York and sophomores Cori Cooper, Corrie Forcier, Judy

Jones, Jermini Malone and Whitney Wright.

Blair will also welcome three newcomers to the Alamo City in juniors Ashley Gardner and Ijeoma Waturuocha and sophomore Lyndi Thorman.

The Frontcourt

Height and athleticism will not be in short order for UTSA this season, as the team features eight players who stand 6-0 or taller, including Forcier, who towers at 6-5. Despite being the squad's shortest post player at 5-6, Franklin, a preseason All-Southland second teamer, will look to repeat as the team's leading rebounder from a year ago. Last season, the Conners State transfer helped fill the void left by Onika Anderson by nearly averaging a double-double with 11.9 points and 8.9 boards per game.

"Ashleigh Franklin has come back in tremendous shape," Rippetoe-Blair said. "She's got that desire and determination with her rebounding and shooting and she's doing a great job for us."

Jones, the team's second leading rebounder from last season, joins Franklin as a preseason second-team All-Southland member. The Monroe, La., native was the team's third-leading rebounder at 6.8 per contest, while her scoring jumped from 10.6 to 12.8 points per game in conference action.

The second-tallest player on the team, Wright will look to build upon a freshman campaign that saw her appear in 28 games off the bench and contribute defensively with 11 blocks and 17 steals a year ago. The Springer, Okla., native also showed the ability to stretch the defense with her 3-point shooting, hitting eight treys in 2009-10.

Ansley and Forcier will provide depth for UTSA, along with Cooper, who redshirted last season after appearing in 14 games as a freshman. Look for Gardner to add to that depth and help stretch the defense with her 3-point shooting. Last season at Arkansas Baptist, she led the team in 3-point field goal percentage at a 45.1-percent clip.

2009-10 Review

"I think we will have more of an emphasis on our post game this season," Rippetoe-Blair said. "Cori Cooper is playing really well right now and she can score down low along with Corrie Forcier who is a big body that can go up and score."

After transferring from Western Illinois last winter, Thorman is eligible to step in right away for the Roadrunners and contribute on the frontline.

"All of our posts are going to contribute," Rippetoe-Blair said. "When you have that balance it makes you a very solid team."

The Backcourt

If an experienced backcourt wins championships, then the Roadrunners should be feeling good about the stable of returners at the guard spots in 2010-11.

The group is led by York, a preseason first-team All-Southland pick, and Gregg.

York led the team in scoring a season ago, averaging 15.0 points per game and was named second-team all-conference at season's end after averaging 16.2 points in league play.

A vocal team leader, Gregg has already made her mark in the UTSA history books, entering the season second on the all-time 3-point field goals made list with 110 for her career. The Austin native also is looking to become the first player in school history to play in three NCAA Tournaments during her career.

Davis returns to action this season after sitting out all of 2009-10 with an injury, while Johnson, a fellow senior, was the fifth-leading scorer last season and a constant matchup problem for opponents with her 6-0 frame as a two-guard.

"Alysse and Kameisha are shooting the ball extremely well," Rippetoe-Blair said. "I look for both to take over in a leadership role and a big scoring role for us."

Malone was a solid contributor off the bench and stepped into the starting role twice last season, including a career-best 16-point output that led UTSA to a win over I-35 rival Texas State in her first career start.

The group will be joined by Waturuocha, a newcomer from Westbury Christian High in Houston.

"I think we have a great one-two combo in the backcourt with Amber Gregg and Whitney York," Rippetoe-Blair said. "Our versatility with what we can do in the backcourt really helps as well. We've got some 6-3 girls like Whitney Wright and Lyndi Thorman that can step out and shoot the ball along with scoring on the block."

The Schedule

The road to the Big Dance will not be an easy one for the Roadrunners, who will face a total of 12 teams that participated in postseason play a year ago.

"This is the toughest schedule we've had in my time here," Rippetoe-Blair said. "I believe you have to play a tough regular season schedule to prepare for the conference season and tournament. Our players are excited and focused on working hard to prepare for this schedule, which is very exciting to see as a coach."

Games at LSU and San Diego State, along with a possible neutral site matchup against Texas A&M, highlight the schedule. The Roadrunners also will face TCU, SMU and Kansas State in the friendly confines of the Convocation Center. The tough non-conference schedule should help ready the squad for its run through the 16-game Southland ledger and the league tournament, which will be played at the Merrell Center in Katy from March 8-12.

A run for a third consecutive conference championship and a trip back to the NCAA's was going to be a challenge tor Rippetoe-Blair. The departure of three starters (Onika Anderson, Monica Gibbs and Ryba Pawlaczyk) that contributed more than 70 percent of the offense and returning one starter (junior Amber Gregg) saw UTSA in the mist of a rebuilding year. However, the Roadrunners produced a 16-14 overall record and a third-place showing in the West Division standings with a 10-6 mark. The Roadrunners made their way to a 10th consecutive postseason appearance as a No. 4 seed and taced titthseeded UT Arlington. The Mavericks ended any hopes of a three-peat for the Runners with a 68-63 win in the openinground of the Southland Tournament. Despite an up and down 2009-10 season, Rippetoe-Blair saw the resurgence of sophomore Whitney York, who missed most of the 2008-09 year due to injury, and the emergence of freshman Judy Jonés and junior transfer Ashleigh Franklin. York and Jonés enjoyed successful campaigns and their efforts did not go unnoticed as they were tabled second-team All-Southland, while Franklin collected third-team all-league honors. The Roadrunners ended the year atop three defensive categories scoring defense/61.8 points per game, lowest field goal percentage/37.2 percent and 3-point field goal percentage/28.8 percent.

After beginning the 2008-09 season 2-6, UTSA ended the year strong with the Southland Conference Regular Season and Tournament Championships and punched its second ticket to the NCAA Tournament. The Roadrunners also set a school-record with 24 wins and posted a 14-2 conference mark, tying UT Arlington for first-place in the league, while Rippetoe-Blair picked up Southland Coach of the Year honors for the third time. She was also recognized as the 2009 TABC Coach of the Year. Meanwhile, three Roadrunners collected all-conference honors led by Monica Gibbs, who was named Southland Player of the Year and the circuit's Defensive Player of the Year. The Runners entered the league's tournament as the No. 2 seed and began defense of their postseason championship with a 71-52 win against No. 7 seed McNee'se State in the quarterfinals. UTSA then escaped with a 58-47 win versus sixth-seeded Northwestern State in the semifinals before knocking off top seed UT Arlington, 74-63, in the finals to earn the automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. The Roadrunners saw their season come to an end with an 87-82 overtime loss against second-seeded Baylor in firstround action in Lubbock. It was the first time in tournament history that a No. 15 seed took a second-seeded team into overtime.

The 2007-08 season was a year to remember for the Roadrunners, as they won their first-ever Southland Conference Tournament and made their first trip to the NCAA Tournament. UTSA won 23 games, which marked the first 20-win season since 1983-84. Overall, the Runners ended the season with a 23-10 mark and a 12-4 league record, which was good enough for second place in the conference standings. UTSA began tournament play as the third seed and made quick work of its first-round opponent Northwestern State, 80-56. The Roadrunners then got past UT Arlington in the semifinals, 77-67, and rounded out the tournament with a 65-56 win over No. 4 seed Lamar in the championship game. The Roadrunners' season came to an end as No. 2-seed Texas A&M defeated them in first-round action of the NCAA Tournament in Baton Rouge, La.

In 2006-07, the Roadrunners finished 14-16 overall and 9-7 in Southland play. Rippetoe-Blair collected her 100th UTSA career victory on Nov. 24 with a 77-67 win against Eastern Washington. UTSA finished its conference season in a three-way tie for fourth place and earned the No. 5 seed at the 2007 Southland Tournament. The Roadrunners pulled an upset win against Southeastern Louisiana in the first round before falling to top-seeded UT Arlington in the semifinals.

During the 2005-06 season, Rippetoe-Blair and the Roadrunners enjoyed a successful year with an 18-12 mark and a trip back to the Southland Tournament finals. The Runners finished third in the league with an 11-5 record and she recorded her 200th career win on Feb. 2 at Nicholls.

In her fifth season, Rippetoe-Blair mentored the Roadrunners to a 16-12 record along with 10 wins in Southland play in 2003-04. UTSA boasted the league's top defense, holding opponents to just 57.8 points per game.

Rippetoe-Blair's fourth season saw UTSA coming off its firstever Southland Conference Championship, but would come up short in the postseason as Northwestern State handed the Runners a 82-71 loss in the semifinals. The Roadrunners registered a 15-14 record and a 10-6 mark in league play.

In her third season, Rippetoe-Blair led UTSA to the program's first regular season Southland Championship with a 17-3 league ledger and an overall mark of 18-11 in 2002-03. Rippetoe-Blair was honored as the Southland Conference Coach of the Year. The honor was richly deserved after turning around a team that began the season 0-8, and upon entering Southland play, won 17 of 19 games, including a 13-game winning streak, 17 conference wins and 11 home court wins, all school records.

In 2000-01, Rippetoe-Blair received Southland Coach of the Year honors following a 13-7 league campaign and into the postseason.

Rippetoe-Blair's teams have been ranked among the best defensive teams in the country. UTSA was ranked in the top six nationally in scoring defense in 2002-03 and was second in the nation in her first two seasons (2000-01 and 2001-02).

While the immediate impact Blair had on the UTSA's program might be a surprise, the success should not be. A proven winner as a head coach at NAIA Phillips University and as an assistant at Oklahoma State, she has enjoyed continued success.

Rippetoe-Blair turned around a Phillips program with a 104-51 mark during her five seasons in Enid, Okla. She was named the Sooner Athletic Conference's 1989-90 Coach of the Year after a 29-7 record.

Prior to UTSA, Rippetoe-Blair was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Oklahoma State, for eight seasons. As a player, she left her mark to this day on the Cowgirls program, ranking in the top 20 in five categories.

As an assistant coach, she helped build Oklahoma State as one of the top programs in the Big Eight Conference and made valuable contacts among high school coaches. Her pipeline to Oklahoma has brought former Texas Tech recruit Nikki Hendrix, and former standouts Lacy Mingee and Katie Sandefur to San Antonio. Rippetoe-Blair continued to bring excellent recruits from the state of Oklahoma with the 2008-09 All-America candidate and Southland's Player of the Year and league's Defensive Player to the Year Monica Gibbs from Stillwater, Okla.

Rippetoe-Blair started her coaching career in 1985 as an assistant coach at Southern Nazarene in Bethany, Okla. She was at SNU for two seasons before moving to Phillips. After two rebuilding seasons at Phillips, Rippetoe-Blair coached three straight 20-win teams. Phillips went 29-7 in 1989-90, as Rippetoe-Blair earned conference coach of the year honors. In 1990-91, Phillips was 23-8 and 20-9 in her final season before returning to Oklahoma State.

As an Ardmore (Okla.) High School athlete, she ran on the 1980 state champion mile relay team, played on the 1980 Oklahoma-Texas All-Star team and was an all-state pick in track and basketball. She was the team's MVP in softball and was named the outstanding female Athlete of the Year for Ardmore High.

She and her husband, Craig, reside in Boerne, Texas.

In 2007, Hickey was named to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, one of the most prestigious appointments in all of collegiate athletics. The 10-member committee oversees administration of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship, including the selection and seeding of teams for the tournament. Hickey became just the second female ever selected to the committee, joining UNC Charlotte Athletics Director Judy Rose, who served from 1999-2003.

Hickey has been honored nationally for her hard work at UTSA. She was named the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators 2005 Division I-AAA Administrator of the Year. Hickey earned her second national award in June 2006 as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA)/ GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-AAA West Region AD of the Year (ADOY). She also was selected to and completed the Masters Leadership Program of San Antonio and Bexar County.

"UTSA is very fortunate to have an athletic leader with both the administrative and coaching experience of Lynn Hickey," UTSA President Dr. Ricardo Romo said. "Lynn not only is a leader who can take our athletic program to the next level, but she is also well respected nationally and serves as an excellent role model for all student-athletes at this university."

In serving as the fourth athletics director in UTSA history, Hickey assumed the lead athletics role at one of the youngest NCAA Division I universities in the country (UTSA began athletic competition in 1981). The only female Division I athletics director that oversees both men's and women's sports in the state of Texas, she served as President of the Southland Conference from 2002-04 and as the SLC's representative to the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet.

"It has been an exciting time," said Hickey, who served on the Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 2003-06, the last two as Chair. "We have made some good strides to bring the program to prominence nationally. San Antonio is an outstanding city and is a tremendous asset to the unlimited potential of the UTSA athletics program."

Hickey came to San Antonio from Texas A&M University, where she served as senior associate athletic director/senior woman administrator since 1994. At Texas A&M, her responsibilities included event management and marketing and promotions for 16 of the university's 19 Division I sports. She also represented the Big 12 Conference as a member of the NCAA Championship Cabinet.

From 1984-94, Hickey served as head women's basketball coach for Texas A&M. She directed the 1993-94 Aggies basketball team to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, becoming the lowest-seeded team to ever reach that milestone. Texas A&M finished the year ranked No. 19 in the CNN/USA Today Top 25 poll. Following the season, Hickey relinquished her coaching duties to accept the promotion to senior associate athletic director. She finished her coaching career with an overall mark of 279-167 in 15 years of collegiate coaching.

Before her stint at A&M, Hickey was head women's basketball coach at Kansas State University from 1979-84. She averaged more than 23 wins per season in posting a 125-39 (.762) record over five years and led the Wildcats to five consecutive NCAA Tournament berths. She was inducted into the Kansas State Athletics Hall of Fame in September 2004.

A native of Welch, Okla., Hickey graduated summa cum laude from Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Ark., with a bachelor's degree in education. She was an All-American for OBU's nationallyranked basketball team and a member of the USA National Team in 1973. Hickey and her husband, Bill, have one daughter, Lauren Nicole.

Southland Conference

n an era of considerable change in intercollegiate athletics, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

What began as a small gathering of college administrators more than 47 years ago, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 12 member universities in three states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, that included current members Lamar (then Lamar State College of Technology) and UT Arlington (then Arlington State College), the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its fifth decade of existence.

On July 1, 2006, the Southland Conference commemorated another milestone as the league membership reached 12, marking the largest configuration ever for the organization. The addition of the Central Arkansas and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi expanded the Southland into the Little Rock, Ark., metro area and into the eighth largest city in Texas. Central Arkansas and A&M-Corpus Christi enhanced the Southland Conference in innumerable ways, including athletic and academic successes, strong and principled leadership, and strong fan support and media coverage.

In addition to its two newest members, the Southland Conference lineup also consists of Lamar, McNeese State , Nicholls State, Northwestern State, Sam Houston State , Southeastern Louisiana, Stephen F. Austin State, UT Arlington, UTSA, and Texas State.

All told, the revised membership of the Southland encompasses more than 180,000 current students and an alumni base of approximately 920,000. Famous alums from Southland Conference schools include former President Lyndon B. Johnson (Texas State), former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), retired U.S. Central Command General Tommy Franks (UT Arlington), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), country music star George Strait (Texas State), Major League Baseball stars Hunter Pence (UT Arlington), Kevin Millar (Lamar) and Ben Broussard (McNeese State), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas) and actor Lou Diamond Phillips (UT Arlington).

The cities of the Southland are diverse and progressive, ranging from international business and cultural centers such as the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex, San Antonio and the New Orleans area, to the historical cities of Nacogdoches, Texas, and Natchitoches, La., to the home of the modern oil boom, Beaumont, Texas, to the unique Cajun French cultures found in the Louisiana cities of Thibodaux and Lake Charles. Southland Conference institutions also draw large numbers of students from the metropolitan areas of Houston, Little Rock, Baton Rouge, Austin, and Shreveport.

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

Continuing its tradition of innovation, the league launched the Southland Conference Television Network in the fall of 2008 and has already broadcast nearly 70 events. In just its second year of production, the network has already received recognition for its work. It received a College Sports Media Award at the College Sports Video Summit in Atlanta in June 2010 for it production of the 2009 McNeese State vs.

2010 for it production of the 2009 McNeese State vs. Stephen F. Austin football game, which was judged the best live game or event in its category. The network also collected three prestigious Tell Awards.

Entering its third season in 2010-11, the network will expand its reach to roughly 6 million households throughout Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas.

In February 2010, the Southland Conference learned it, in conjunction with the city of Frisco, Texas, and the Hunt Sports Group, would serve as the host of the NCAA Division I Football Championship game. The first of three championship games will be played Jan. 7, 2011 at Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, which has been home to the conference office since 2006. Frisco was recently named the fastest growing city in the nation.

The conference has increased sponsorship and championship opportunities for female student-athletes in recent years, adding women's golf and soccer as league sports. In 2007, Stephen F. Austin became the first Southland soccer team to score a goal in the NCAA tournament, while Texas State became the first women's golf program to compete in the NCAA tournament.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its studentathletes. With the F.L. McDonald Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the league annually honors one male and one female scholar-athlete with a stipend for postgraduate study. The Scholar-Athlete Award is given to each institution's male and female student-athlete with the highest grade-point average. The Steve McCarty Citizenship Award, initiated in 2005-06 and named after the former Stephen F. Austin athletic director, properly recognizes accomplishments off the court for a male and female student-athlete. Also, student-athletes with grade-point averages above 3.0 are honored on the Southland's annual All-Academic teams and Commissioner's Honor Roll. A record 934 student-athletes appeared on the honor roll following the 2010 spring semester.

In addition to providing expanding opportunities for studentathletes, the Southland Conference and its member institutions are very involved in various community outreach programs. Many of these programs provide positive life skills training such as academics, citizenship and leadership to school-aged students in Southland communities.
