Season Outlook

After winning the Southland Conference's West Division for the second time in the last three seasons, the UTSA women's basketball team will look to add to its trophy case again in 2011-12 with a mixture of newcomers and veterans.

Selected by the league's head coaches and sports information directors to win the West Division, the Roadrunners return eight players from last year's squad that finished 16-15 overall, including an 11-5 Southland mark. Joining the returners will be six newcomers that include a pair of junior college transfers – Jalisa Montgomery and Simone Young – to go along with freshmen Mannasha Bell, Kamra King, Jenny Menz and Ashley Spaletta.

Rae Rippetoe-Blair, the longest tenured coach in program history, returns to the bench in 2011 and welcomes back Cori Cooper, Ashley Gardner, Jermini Malone, Lyndi Thorman, Ijeoma Waturuocha and Whitney Wright. In addition, Blair welcomes back a pair of all-conference performers in Whitney York and Judy Jones, both of whom missed the 2010-11 season.

Blair enters the season needing just one win to reach 300 for her career while eight wins would give her 200 at UTSA.

UTSA will be charged with replacing all-league performers Amber Gregg and Ashleigh Franklin along with Alysse Davis, who set the school's single-season and career blocks record last year.

The frontcourt received a boost last season with the addition of Thorman, who joined UTSA after a year at Western Illinois. The Macomb, Ill., native became a key part of the squad down the stretch. Thorman averaged 8.5 points and 4.2 rebounds per game in conference action, where she shot 45.9-percent and recorded double-doubles in wins against Stephen F. Austin (Feb. 12) and Nicholls (Feb. 19).

Wright and Cooper will look to build upon their campaigns last season in which the pair combined to start 10 games while newcomers Montgomery, Menz and Bell will vie for playing time, as well.

Montgomery led Arkansas Baptist in rebounding last season and at 5-11, Menz will provide valuable size and a wealth of international playing experience after spending time on the 16U, 18U and 20U German National teams. Bell, a 5-11 freshman, is another versatile athlete at Blair's disposal. The Fort Smith, Ark., native was a McDonald's All-America nominee and was named All-Class 7A three times in four different sports (basketball, volleyball, softball, track & field).

While the backcourt will look different without Gregg, the school's all-time leader in 3-pointers made, the return of York will help lead an experienced group for the Roadrunners.

The Bryan, Texas, native led the team with 15.0 points per game in 2009-10 and was a preseason first-team All-Southland pick a year ago before an injury in fall practice prematurely ended her campaign. York is joined by Malone, who spent much of last season among the nation's best in assist to turnover ratio.

Junior Jermini Malone ranked among the nation's best distributors for much of last season. She finished with 91 assists (2.9 apg).

Season Outlook

Junior Lyndi Thorman came alive in the second half of the 2010-11 season and averaged 8.5 points and 4.2 rebounds in Southland action.

Malone averaged 4.7 points and 3.0 assists per game and appeared in every contest with eight starts. She was a key part in most of UTSA's victories, especially her effort to lead a 17-1 run in the final three minutes of a comeback win at Texas State (Jan. 22), in which Malone scored nine points and collected three steals.

Waturuocha and Jones, who returns after redshirting the 2010-11 season, will also see time in the backcourt along with newcomers King, Spaletta and Young. Another versatile athlete, Jones averaged 10.6 points and 6.8 rebounds per game in 2009-10 and was named second-team All-Southland. At 5-9, Jones also can play small forward or provide a matchup problem for opponents in the backcourt.

Known for her outside shooting, Young comes to UTSA after averaging more than 11 points per contest in two seasons at Arkansas Baptist, where she was teammates with Montgomery and Gardner. She helped lead the Lady Buffaloes to a 40-18 record during her tenure after being a four-year starter at West Memphis High school.

King and Spaletta join the Roadrunners after stellar high school careers. Like Bell, the pair were both McDonald's All-America nominees last season. A four-year starter at point guard for Norman (Okla.) High School, King was named to the Oklahoma Girls Basketball Coaches Association's All-State Team after averaging 14.8 points per game. As a sophomore, she earned notoriety as the state's most accurate 3-point shooter and scored 50 points in three straight state tournament games. Spaletta, a three-time All-Class 5A selection at Magnolia (Ark.) High School averaged 16 points per contest as a senior and was twice named to the state's All-Tournament Team.

UTSA opens its season on Nov. 11 against Missouri at the Convocation Center. The 2011-12 slate includes 11 postseason squads from a season ago and 18 home games. The Roadrunners have qualified for the Southland Tournament every year under Blair and will look to earn its third NCAA Tournament berth at the conference tournament, March 6-9 at the Merrell Center in Katy, Texas.

Junior Whitney York returns after missing the 2010-11 season with an injury. In 2009-10, York was a second-team All-Southland selection after averaging 15.0 points per game.

Media Information

MEDIA COVERAGE

The UTSA Athletics Communications Office assists members of the media with their coverage of all UTSA sports by providing feature ideas, notes, statistics and travel plans. In addition to the 2011-12 UTSA Women's Basketball Almanac, media members may check the athletic department's web site — goUTSA.com — for the latest information pertaining to all 17 sports.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All interviews with basketball student-athletes and coaches must be arranged at least 24 hours in advance by contacting the UTSA Athletics Communications Office. Telephone interviews are available to the media on a "call-back" basis only and at a time that is convenient for the student-athlete. Postgame interviews with coaches and players will be conducted courtside following a 10-minute "cooling off" period. The UTSA locker room is closed to the media.

MEDIA SERVICES

Media members are encouraged to contact the UTSA Athletics Communications Office at least 24 hours in advance for credentials. Credentials can be picked up with proper identification at the will call table located in the South Lobby of the Convocation Center. The press row phone is (210) 458-4566. A fax machine (210/458-4569) located in UTSA Athletics Communications Office adjacent to the Convocation Center.

PRACTICES

UTSA welcomes all media to attend basketball practices during the season with advance notice. The UTSA Athletics Communications Office requests media members to contact the sport's SID for practice times, photo opportunities and interview requests. In most cases, student-athletes and coaches will be made available after practice.

LIVE STATISTICS

Live statistics for all UTSA home basketball games can be found online at goUTSA.com.

RAE RIPPETOE-BLAIR

Oklahoma State • 1985
12th Season
Record at UTSA: 192-138 (.582)
Career Record: 299-182 (.621), 16 yrs.

A three-time Southland Conference Coach of the Year, Rae Rippetoe-Blair enters her 12th season at UTSA.

During her 11 seasons at the helm, Rippetoe-Blair has established herself as one of the brightest minds in the Southland Conference. The Ardmore, Okla., native has guided the Roadrunners to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances (2008-09), back-to-back Southland Conference Tournament Championships (2008-09), a pair of Southland Regular Season Titles (2003/'09) and consecutive 20-win seasons (2007-08/'08-09), including a school-record 24 wins in 2008-09.

Since her hiring in 2000, she has transformed the Roadrunners into one of the top programs in the Southland. Rippetoe-Blair has led UTSA to 11 consecutive Southland Tournament appearances, including four trips to the conference finals (2003/'06/'08/'09). During the 2004-05 season, she became the winningest basketball coach in UTSA history. She currently has 192 victories (only women's coach at UTSA with more than 150) and her .581 winning percentage is second-best in school annals. The Roadrunners have posted the most Southland wins (132) and the second-best winning percentage (.702) in the league since 2001. Her 132 league victories is tops among active conference coaches and ranks second all-time in the circuit.

Rippetoe-Blair has mentored several outstanding student-athletes during her time at UTSA, including 2008-09 Southland Conference Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year Monica Gibbs, who is currently playing overseas (Amicale Steesel). She has coached four Southland Newcomers of the Year (Nikki Hendrix 2002/Dewella Holiday 2003/Vivian Ewalefo 2006/Onika Anderson 2008), two Southland Freshmen of the Year (Richelle Parks 2005/Monica Gibbs 2006), 24 All-Southland selections (seven first teamers), two Southland Student-Athletes of the Year (Nicole Dunson 2005/Ryba Pawlaczyk 2009), four Southland All-Academic selections and a pair of CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees.

Rippetoe-Blair has an overall record of 299-182 in 16 full seasons as a head coach. The Roadrunners have averaged 17.4 wins per season during her tenure.

Last season, the Roadrunners posted 16 victories, including an 11-5 Southland mark to win the conference's West Division for the second time in the last three years. With preseason All-Southland guards Whitney York and Judy Jones out for the season, UTSA leaned heavily on its five seniors, who responded with another record-breaking year.

Amber Gregg became the school's most prolific 3-point shooter and finished her career with 200 to rank in the league's top 10. Known for her outside shooting, it was Alysse Davis' defense that earned her a spot in the UTSA record book with single-season (78) and career (98) marks for blocks. Rippetoe-Blair led the program to its 11th consecutive Southland Tournament appearance and entered as the No. 4 seed. On the strength of a career-high 33 points from Ashleigh Franklin that included a single-game tournament record 15 free throws, UTSA defeated Sam Houston State before falling to regular season and eventual tournament champion McNeese State in the semifinals. Gregg (second team) and Franklin (third team) each earned all-conference honors, while Franklin also made the all-tournament team. For the second consecutive season, the Roadrunners ended the year atop the league three defensive categories — field goal percentage defense (36.7 percent), blocks (138) and defensive rebounds (839).

In 2009-10, a run for a third consecutive conference championship and a trip back to the NCAA Tournament was going to be a challenge for Rippetoe-Blair. The departure of three starters (Anderson/Gibbs/Pawlaczyk) that contributed more than 70 percent of the offense and returning one starter (junior Amber Gregg) saw UTSA in the mist of a rebuilding year. However, the Roadrunners produced a 16-14 overall record and a third-place showing in the West Division standings with a 10-6 mark. The Roadrunners made their way to a 10th consecutive postseason appearance as a No. 4 seed. Despite an up-and-down season, Rippetoe-Blair saw the resurgence of York, who missed most of the 2008-09 year due to injury, and the emergence of Jones and Franklin. York and Jones enjoyed successful campaigns and their efforts did not go unnoticed as they were tabbed second-team All-Southland, while Franklin collected third-team all-league honors. The Roadrunners ended the year atop the circuit in three defensive categories — scoring defense (61.8 ppg), lowest field goal percentage (37.2 percent) and 3-point field goal percentage (28.8 percent).

After dropping six of its first eight games of the 2008-09 season, UTSA ended the year strong with the Southland Regular Season and Tournament Championships and punched its second ticket to the NCAA Tournament. The Roadrunners also set a school-record with 24 wins and posted a 14-2 conference mark, tying UT Arlington for first-place in the league, while Rippetoe-Blair picked up Southland Coach of the Year honors for the third time. She was also recognized as the 2009 TABC Coach of the Year. Meanwhile, three Roadrunners collected all-conference honors led by Gibbs, who was named Southland Player of the Year and the circuit's Defensive Player of the Year. The Roadrunners entered the league's tournament as the No. 2 seed and began defense of their postseason championship with a 71-52 win against No. 7 seed McNeese State in the quarterfinals. UTSA then escaped with a 58-47 win versus sixth-seeded Northwestern State in the semifinals before knocking off top seed UT Arlington, 74-63 to earn the league's automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. The Roadrunners saw their season come to an end with an 87-82 overtime loss against second-seeded Baylor in first-round action, but it was the first time in tournament history that a No. 15 seed took a second-seeded team into overtime.

The 2007-08 season was a year to remember for the Roadrunners, as they won their first-ever Southland Tournament and made their first trip to the NCAA Tournament. UTSA won 23 games, which marked the first 20-win season since 1983-84. The Roadrunners ended the season with a 23-10 overall mark and a 12-4 league record, which was good enough for second place in the conference standings. UTSA began tournament play as the third seed and made quick work of its first-round opponent Northwestern State, 80-56. The Roadrunners then got past UT Arlington in the semifinals, 77-67, and rounded out the tournament with a 65-56 win against No. 4 seed Lamar in the championship game. The Roadrunners' season came to an end against No. 2-seed Texas A&M in first-round action of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2006-07, Rippetoe-Blair collected her 100th UTSA career victory on Nov. 24 with a 77-67 win against Eastern Washington. UTSA finished its conference season in a three-way tie for fourth place at 9-7 and earned the No. 5 seed at the 2007 Southland Tournament. The Roadrunners pulled an upset win against Southeastern Louisiana in the first round before falling to top-seeded UT Arlington in the semifinals.

During the 2005-06 season, Rippetoe-Blair and the Roadrunners enjoyed a successful year with an 18-12 mark and a trip back to the Southland Tournament finals. UTSA finished third in the league with an 11-5 record and she recorded her 200th career win on Feb. 2 at Nicholls.

In her fifth season in 2003-04, Rippetoe-Blair mentored the Roadrunners to a 16-12 record along with 10 wins in Southland play. UTSA boasted the league's top defense after holding its opponents to just 57.8 points per game.

Rippetoe-Blair's fourth season saw UTSA register a 15-14 overall record and a 10-6 mark in league play.

In her third season, Rippetoe-Blair led UTSA to its first regular season Southland crown with a 17-3 league ledger and an overall mark of 18-11. She was honored as the Southland Coach of the Year. It was richly deserved after turning around a team that began the season 0-8, and upon entering Southland play, won 17 of 19 games, including a 13-game winning streak, 17 conference wins and 11 home court wins, all school records.

In 2000-01, Rippetoe-Blair received Southland Coach of the Year honors following a 13-7 league campaign.

UTSA was ranked in the top six nationally in scoring defense in 2002-03 and was second in the nation in her first two seasons (2000-01/2001-02).

While the immediate impact Rippetoe-Blair had on UTSA's program might be a surprise, the success should not. A proven winner as a head coach at NAIA Phillips University and as an assistant at Oklahoma State, she has enjoyed continued success.

Rippetoe-Blair turned around a Phillips program with a 104-51 mark during her five seasons in Enid, Okla. She was named the Sooner Athletic Conference's 1989-90 Coach of the Year after a 29-7 record.

Prior to UTSA, Rippetoe-Blair was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Oklahoma State, for eight seasons. As a player, she left her mark on the Cowgirls program, ranking in the top 20 in five categories.

As an assistant coach, she helped build Oklahoma State as one of the top teams in the Big Eight Conference and made valuable contacts among high school coaches. Her pipeline to Oklahoma has brought Gibbs, Hendrix, Lacy Mingee and Katie Sandefur to San Antonio.

Rippetoe-Blair started her coaching career in 1985 as an assistant coach at Southern Nazarene in Bethany, Okla. She was at SNU for two seasons before moving to Phillips.

After two rebuilding seasons at Phillips, Rippetoe-Blair coached three consecutive 20-win teams. Phillips went 29-7 in 1989-90 and she earned conference coach of the year honors. In 1990-91, Phillips was 23-8 and it posted a 20-9 in her final season before returning to Oklahoma State.

As an Ardmore (Okla.) High School athlete, she ran on the 1980 state champion mile relay team, played on the 1980 Oklahoma-Texas All-Star softball team and was an all-state pick in basketball and track & field. She was the team's MVP in softball and was named the outstanding female Athlete of the Year.

She and her husband, Craig, reside in Boerne, Texas.

Associate Head Coach

LUBOMYR LICHONCZAK

Idaho • 1978
10th Season

Lubomyr "Luby" Lichonczak enters his eighth season as associate head coach and 10th overall at UTSA. He serves as the program's scouting coordinator and team academic liaison along with assisting with scheduling and recruiting. He also coaches the post players.

Lichonczak concluded his 32nd year of collegiate coaching last season. He was instrumental in helping UTSA win back-to-back Southland Tournament Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2008 and '09. Lichonczak also played an important role in helping UTSA capture its second Southland Regular Season Championship in 2009. The Roadrunners also posted consecutive 20-win seasons (2007-08/2008-09), including a school-record 24 in 2008-09.

Under Lichonczak's guidance, forwards Ashleigh Franklin and Onika Anderson earned a total of four all-conference nods and in just two years. Both rank in the school's all-time top 11 for rebounding and top 25 in scoring and the pair capped their careers with outstanding performances in the Southland Tournament. Anderson was named the event's Most Valuable Player in 2009, while Franklin set a single-game record with 15 free throws made in the 2011 opener against Sam Houston State and she went an all-tournament accolades.

He served as an assistant coach for the Women's National Basketball Association's (WNBA) Washington Mystics during the 2009 season and as an advance scout for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2010. During his stay with the Mystics, he guided the team to a 16-18 record and earned the No. 4 seed of the WNBA Eastern Conference Playoffs, the Mystics' first postseason appearance since 2006.

During the summer of 2007, he was an assistant coach for the Nigerian national team, where mentored former UTSA standout Vivian Ewalefo. Lichonczak also served as an advance scout for the WNBA's Indiana Fever and Minnesota Lynx.

Lichonczak began his head coaching career at Radford from 1990-2001, where he guided the Highlanders to a half dozen Big South Conference titles and three NCAA Tournament appearances. In 1992, he was named the Big South Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 20-9 overall record and an 11-1 league ledger. During his 11-year stint at Radford, Lichonczak tallied 159 victories, including a Big South mark of 99-59 (.627).

Lichonczak also served as an assistant coach at Ohio State for five seasons, where he helped guide the Buckeyes to four Big Ten Conference titles from 1982-85. He also has served as an assistant coach at Texas A&M, Old Dominion and Idaho.

At Texas A&M, he worked with current UTSA Athletics Director Lynn Hickey from 1987-90, serving as the scouting and recruiting coordinator and assisting with floor coaching responsibilities.

At Old Dominion, he helped lead the Monarchs to the 1987 Sun Belt Conference Championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Lichonczak began his coaching career at his alma mater, Idaho. The Vandals were AIAW Division II Tournament participants in 1980. He served as associate head coach at Colorado State from 2001-02 and helped the team win the Mountain West Regular Season Championship and the Rams earned a trip the 2002 NCAA Tournament.

Lichonczak received his master's degree in athletics administration from Ohio State in 1985. He and his wife, Maryann, have a son, Yov, and one daughter, Nika.

Assistant Coach

TAI DILLARD

Texas • 2003
Fifth Season

Former Texas Longhorns and San Antonio Silver Stars standout Tai Dillard enters her fifth season as an assistant coach at UTSA. Her primary duties include recruiting, working with the guards, scouting and organizing summer camps.

Since her hiring in 2007, the UTSA program has enjoyed success with back-to-back Southland Conference Tournament Championships and consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008 & '09), a pair of 20-win seasons and one Southland Regular Season Title in 2009.

In Dillard's short tenure, 11 Roadrunners have garnered All-Southland postseason awards, including three first teamers. She was vital in helping former standout Monica Gibbs become the UTSA's all-time assists and rebounding leader, a three-time all-conference performer and the Southland Player of the Year and the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 2009.

The UTSA backcourt led the squad the last two seasons as Whitney York averaged 15.0 ppg in 2009-10 while Amber Gregg netted 15.1 ppg in conference action. Both were named second-team All-Southland. Gregg set the school's 3-pointers mark (200) and she tied the school's single-game free throws record with 17 against I-35 rival Texas State last season.

The San Antonio native began her coaching career as a head cross country and assistant basketball and track & field coach at Sam Houston High School. She also served as a physical education teacher.

Dillard brings a tremendous amount of collegiate and professional playing experience to UTSA. She was a four-year letterwinner at Texas from 1999-2003. During her four-year stay, she helped the Longhorns register a 92-42 record, which translated to a .687 winning percentage, and four straight trips to the NCAA Tournament, including to the 2003 NCAA Women's Final Four. In her final campaign at Texas, Dillard started 34 games and averaged 7.6 points and 4.7 rebounds per contest and helped the Longhorns to a 29-6 overall record and a 15-1 Big 12 Conference mark. That same year, UT swept the league with the regular season title and tournament championship. Dillard was a two-time Big 12 All-Academic honoree.

Professionally, Dillard appeared in 57 games for the San Antonio Silver Stars from 2003-05, had a short stint in the National Women's Basketball League (NWBL) with the Houston Stealth in 2004 and played overseas in the Israeli Premier Basketball League for the Macabbi Tel Kabir from 2004-05.

Dillard earned her bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2003 and currently working on her master's in education administration.

Assistant Coach

KOTY COWGILL

Briar Cliff • 2004
Seventh Season

Koty Cowgill enters his fourth year as an assistant coach at UTSA. He previously served three seasons as the team's director of operations from 2005-08. Cowgill handles recruiting and works with the guards and post players. He also oversees scouting for the Roadrunners.

Under Cowgill's tutelage last season, guard Amber Gregg enjoyed the most successful season of her career and set the school's all-time 3-pointers mark (200). Gregg raised her offensive production by more than four points per game to 13.7 and she was even better in conference play averaging 15.1 ppg en route to being named second-team All-Southland Conference. For the second consecutive season, forward Ashleigh Franklin led the team in rebounding and was named third-team all-league. In addition, she set a Southland Tournament single-game record with 15 free throws in UTSA's opener against Sam Houston State.

The 2009-10 season was a banner year for the Roadrunners' backcourt where four of the team's top five scorers played. Whitney York earned second-team all-conference honors after averaging 15.0 points per contest and 16.2 in Southland action. Freshman Judy Jones also made the second team, while Franklin was a third-team honoree.

In his first season, the Roadrunners repeated as Southland Tournament Champions and returned to the NCAA Tournament. UTSA also claimed a share of the regular season crown with a 14-2 record. Cowgill helped the Roadrunners post their second consecutive 20-win season (school-record 24 victories). He also was instrumental in the team's offensive production, as all five starters averaged in double figures during the 2008-09 season.

Under Cowgill, York bolstered her offensive production from 9.6 points per game in 2007-08 to a career-high 15.0 a year later and she garnered second-team All-Southland honors. Meanwhile, Jones was tabbed second-team all-conference after averaging 10.6 points and 6.8 rebounds per contest during her rookie campaign.

Cowgill played collegiately at Briar Cliff University from 2000-04, where he collected Academic All-America honors. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education.

Cowgill resides in San Antonio with his wife, Mari-ah, and two sons, Camden and Kaden. His sister, KC, is UTSA's director of operations.

Director of Operations

KC COWGILL

Missouri State • 2006
Third Season

A former standout player at Nebraska and Missouri State, KC Cowgill recently completed her second season as director of operations. The Grand Island, Neb., native is in charge of team travel, film exchange, community service outings and she oversees the squad's student managers.

Cowgill was an assistant coach at Western Illinois during the 2008-09 season. Her responsibilities included working with the guards, recruiting, scouting and team travel. She was instrumental in working with Amanda Walker, who earned honorable mention All-Summit League honors in 2009.

Prior to Western Illinois, she spent two seasons (2006-08) as an assistant coach at Centenary College. Cowgill also served as an assistant coach with Kickapoo High School in Springfield, Mo., in 2006.

Cowgill was a two-year letterwinner at Missouri State in 2003-05, where she appeared in 65 games (12 starts). The two-time team captain was part of the Bears' squad that won the Missouri Valley Conference Championship and the WNIT Tournament in 2005. She was tabbed Missouri Valley Newcomer of the Year, while leading her squad to a regular season and tournament conference chamampionship and an NCAA appearance in 2004.

During the 2004-05 season, she led the nation in three-point shooting percentage (.532/74-139) and was second in the country in 2003-04 (.471/65-138). Cowgill is Missouri State's all-time leader in 3-point field goal percentage at 50.2 percent (139-for-277).

Before joining the Bears, Cowgill played her first two collegiate seasons at Nebraska, where she was named team captain in 2001-02. She played in 47 contests, including 22 starts for the Cornhuskers. Cowgill scored 271 points and collected 109 rebounds in her two seasons in Lincoln.

A 2000 graduate of Grand Island Catholic Central High School, Cowgill excelled in three sports and was named Nebraska's Athlete of the Year in 1999-2000. During that year, she was named to Nebraska's Super State First Team in basketball. Cowgill also is the state's second all-time leading scorer.

Cowgill is the younger sister of assistant coach Koty Cowgill.

University President

DR. RICARDO ROMO

Texas • 1967

Ricardo Romo became the fifth president of The University of Texas at San Antonio in May 1999. As President, he leads one of the fastest-growing institutions of higher education in Texas and the nation. UTSA, under his leadership, is now poised to become the state's next premier research university. President Romo has led strategic efforts to enhance both access to education and excellence in scholarship and service at the University.

During President Romo's tenure, UTSA's enrollment has grown 53%, and the University has added numerous programs and facilities to enhance student life. The number of doctoral degree programs has increased from three to 21. He also has implemented new student support programs designed to help students succeed at earning a university degree. The number of advisers has tripled, and UTSA, with nearly 29,000 students in 2009, is recognized as a leader in "Closing the Gaps," a statewide initiative by the Legislature to enroll more Texans in higher education.

A native of San Antonio's West Side, President Romo graduated from Fox Tech High School and attended The University of Texas at Austin on a track scholarship. He served as captain of the track and cross-country team and earned All-American honors in 1966. Romo was the first Texan to run the mile in less than four minutes, and his mile record lasted 41 years.

He earned a B.S. degree in education (1967), a master's degree in history from Loyola Marymount University (1970) and a Ph.D. in history from UCLA (1975). A nationally respected urban historian, Romo is the author of "East Los Angeles: History of a Barrio," which is now in its ninth printing (one in Spanish).

Romo began his career as a social studies coordinator in the Los Angeles public schools in 1967. He taught as an assistant professor at California State University at Northridge (1970-1973) then at UC San Diego (1973-1980). In 1980, he returned to UT Austin to teach history. Prior to joining UTSA, Romo served at UT Austin as Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education (1993-1999).

Romo serves on nearly 20 boards, many of them in San Antonio. He is active on several museum boards and is especially proud of his work with the United

Way. In December 2004, Secretary of State Colin Powell appointed Romo as a U.S. representative to the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization. In January 2005, Romo was appointed to the board of directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, San Antonio branch, and was reappointed in 2007. He was elected chairman of the board for the San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (the largest U.S. Hispanic Chamber organization) for 2006. In 2007, Governor Rick Perry appointed Romo to serve on the Commission for College Ready Texas.

Romo has received many honors during his academic career. In 2006, Romo was honored by the UT Austin Friar Society as Outstanding Friar Alumnus. In November 2007, he was recognized with the Isabel la Catolica award, the highest award given to non-Spanish subjects, bestowed upon him by King Juan Carlos of Spain. In October 2008, Romo received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Texas Exes Alumni Association.

President Romo is married to Dr. Harriett Romo, a Professor of Sociology at UTSA. She also serves as Director of UTSA's Mexico Center and the Bank of America Child and Adolescent Policy Research Institute (CAPRI). They have one son, Carlos, who earned degrees from Stanford University and The University of Texas School of Law. Their daughter, Anadelia, a graduate of Princeton University, received a doctoral degree from Harvard University and presently teaches at Texas State University.

Director of Athletics

LYNN HICKEY

Ouachita Baptist • 1973

Lynn Hickey has made student-athlete welfare one of her top priorities as she continues to work to bring the UTSA Athletics Department to the upper echelon of the NCAA Division I standings.

Under Hickey's direction the last 11 years, UTSA has claimed three Southland Conference all-sports championships while consistently winning both team and individual awards in all 17 sports sponsored by the university. On Dec. 18, 2008, UTSA's Athletics Initiative Business Plan was approved by the UT System Board of Regents, granting permission to start a football program. Hickey made a splash with the hiring of the first-ever head football coach, as two-time National Coach of the Year Larry Coker was introduced on March 6, 2009.

Hickey has led the charge for UTSA and its hosting of numerous NCAA Championship events. Since her arrival on campus, UTSA has served as host institution for the 2001 NCAA Men's Basketball Midwest Regional, 2002 Women's Final Four, 2003 Men's Basketball South Regional, 2004 Men's Final Four, 2005 Women's Volleyball Championship, 2006 Women's Basketball South Regional, 2007 Men's Basketball South Regional, 2008 Men's Final Four and 2010 Women's Final Four. It will serve as host for the 2011 Men's Basketball Southwest Regional and 2011 Women's Volleyball Championship. When the calendar is turned to 2012, UTSA will have hosted 14 NCAA Championship events in a 15-year period.

In 2007, Hickey was named to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, one of the most prestigious appointments in all of collegiate athletics. The 10-member committee oversees administration of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship, including the selection and seeding of teams for the tournament. Hickey became just the second female ever selected to the committee, joining UNC Charlotte Athletics Director Judy Rose, who served from 1999-2003.

Hickey has been honored nationally for her hard work at UTSA. She was named the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators 2005 Division I-AAA Administrator of the Year. Hickey earned her second national award in June 2006 as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA)/GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-AAA West Region AD of the Year (ADOY). She also was selected to and completed the Masters Leadership Program of San Antonio and Bexar County.

"UTSA is very fortunate to have an athletic leader with both the administrative and coaching experience of Lynn Hickey," UTSA President Dr. Ricardo Romo said. "Lynn not only is a leader who can take our athletic program to the next level, but she is also well respected nationally and serves as an excellent role model for all student-athletes at this university."

In serving as the fourth athletics director in UTSA history, Hickey assumed the lead athletics role at one of the youngest NCAA Division I universities in the country (UTSA began athletic competition in 1981). The only female Division I athletics director that oversees both men's and women's sports in the state of Texas, she served as President of the Southland Conference from 2002-04 and as the SLC's representative to the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet.

"It has been an exciting time," said Hickey, who served on the Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 2003-06, the last two as Chair. "We have made some good strides to bring the program to prominence nationally. San Antonio is an outstanding city and is a tremendous asset to the unlimited potential of the UTSA athletics program."

Hired by UTSA in October 1999, Hickey came to San Antonio from Texas A&M University, where she served as senior associate athletic director/senior woman administrator since 1994. At Texas A&M, her responsibilities included event management and marketing and promotions for 16 of the university's 19 Division I sports. She also represented the Big 12 Conference as a member of the NCAA Championship Cabinet.

From 1984-94, Hickey served as head women's basketball coach for Texas A&M. She directed the 1993-94 Aggies basketball team to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, becoming the lowest-seeded team to ever reach that milestone. Texas A&M finished the year ranked No. 19 in the CNN/USA Today Top 25 poll. Following the season, Hickey relinquished her coaching duties to accept the promotion to senior associate athletic director. She finished her coaching career with an overall mark of 279-167 in 15 years of collegiate coaching.

Before her stint at A&M, Hickey was head women's basketball coach at Kansas State University from 1979-84. She averaged more than 23 wins per season in posting a 125-39 (.762) record over five years and led the Wildcats to five consecutive NCAA Tournament berths. She was inducted into the Kansas State Athletics Hall of Fame in September 2004.

A native of Welch, Okla., Hickey graduated summa cum laude from Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Ark., with a bachelor's degree in education. She was an All-American for OBU's nationally-ranked basketball team and a member of the USA National Team in 1973. Hickey and her husband, Bill, have one daughter, Lauren Nicole.

Southland Conference

In an era of considerable change in intercollegiate athletics, the Southland Conference continues to be a model of innovation, stability and consistent achievement as it celebrates the academic and athletic accomplishments of its member institutions.

What began as a small gathering of college administrators nearly 50 years ago, the Southland Conference has transformed itself into a dynamic and respected consortium of 12 member universities in three states. Beginning with a historic meeting of five institutions in Dallas on March 15, 1963, that included current members Lamar University (then Lamar State College of Technology) and the University of Texas at Arlington (then Arlington State College), the Southland Conference set on an extraordinary course that has proven successful well into its fifth decade of existence.

On July 1, 2006, the Southland Conference commemorated another milestone as the league membership reached 12, marking the largest configuration ever for the organization. The addition of the University of Central Arkansas and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi expanded the Southland into the Little Rock, Ark., metro area and into the eighth largest city in Texas. Central Arkansas and A&M-Corpus Christi enhanced the Southland Conference in innumerable ways, including athletic and academic successes, strong and principled leadership, and strong fan support and media coverage.

In addition to its two newest members, the Southland Conference membership also consists of Lamar University, McNeese State University, Nicholls State University, Northwestern State University, Sam Houston State University, Southeastern Louisiana University, Stephen F. Austin State University, the University of Texas at Arlington, the University of Texas at San Antonio, and Texas State University-San Marcos.

All told, the revised membership of the Southland encompasses more than 180,000 current students and an alumni base of approximately 920,000. Famous alums from Southland Conference schools include former President Lyndon B. Johnson (Texas State), former CBS news anchor Dan Rather (Sam Houston State), retired U.S. Central Command General Tommy Franks (UT Arlington), NBA executive Joe Dumars (McNeese State), ABC news anchor Robin Roberts (Southeastern Louisiana), country music star George Strait (Texas State), Major League Baseball stars Hunter Pence (UT Arlington), Kevin Millar (Lamar) and Ben Broussard (McNeese State), NBA legend Scottie Pippen (Central Arkansas) and actor Lou Diamond Phillips (UT Arlington).

The Southland sponsors 17 championship sports, all at the NCAA Division I level. The eight men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. The women compete for nine championships in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. The conference earns automatic qualification to NCAA championships in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, and volleyball.

Continuing its tradition of innovation, the league launched the Southland Conference Television Network in the fall of 2008 and has already broadcast nearly 100 events. The network is expanding its reach to roughly 10 million households throughout Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas in 2011-12. In its first three years, the regional network has received recognition for its work. It received a national honorable mention award at the College Sports Media Award at the College Sports Video Summit in Atlanta in June 2011 for its production of the 2010 Stephen F. Austin vs. Sam Houston State football game in the category of professional live event, competing with the likes of ESPN, Turner Sports, YES Network and other conference networks, including the Big Ten and Mountain West. In the summer of 2010, the network was recognized for the best live game or event in its category for the production of the 2009 McNeese State vs. Stephen F. Austin football game. The conference network has also collected four prestigious Telly Awards, including this past summer when the conference won a Silver Telly Award for its promotion of the 2011 Southland Conference basketball tournament.

In January 2011, the Southland Conference, in conjunction with the city of Frisco, Texas and Hunt Sports Group, played host to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Game in Frisco, which has been home to the conference office since 2006. The game will be played at Frisco's Pizza Hut Park for at least the next two seasons. Frisco was named the fastest growing city in the nation in 2010.

The conference has increased sponsorship and championship opportunities for female student-athletes in recent years, adding women's golf and soccer as league sports.

The Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes. With the F.L. McDonald Postgraduate Scholarship Award, the league annually honors one male and one female scholar-athlete with a stipend for postgraduate study. The Scholar-Athlete Award is given to each institution's male and female student-athlete with the highest grade-point average. The Steve McCarty Citizenship Award, initiated in 2005-06 and named after the former Stephen F. Austin athletic director, properly recognizes accomplishments off the court for a male and female student-athlete. Also, student-athletes with grade-point averages above 3.0 are honored on the Southland's annual All-Academic teams and Commissioner's Honor Roll. A record 953 student-athletes appeared on the honor roll following the 2011 spring semester.

While successful on the fields and courts, the Southland Conference has repeatedly demonstrated its commitment to the academic and athletic success of its student-athletes.

The conference continues to make great strides in the classroom. During the last five years, no other Division I conference has improved its Academic Progress Rate as well as the Southland Conference has. In the most recent year of data collection, 2009-10, the Southland ranked 10th among the 31 Division I leagues in men's basketball APR. The academic progress the league has shown ultimately leads to higher graduation rates for our student-athletes.

In addition to providing expanding opportunities for student-athletes, the Southland Conference and its member institutions are very involved in various community outreach programs. Many of these programs provide positive life skills training such as academics, citizenship and leadership to school-aged students in Southland communities.

Monica Gibbs

On Nov. 21, 2010, Monica Gibbs became the first UTSA women's basketball player to have her jersey retired. The Stillwater, Okla., native helped guide the Roadrunners to a pair of 20-win seasons, including a school-record 24 wins in her senior campaign of 2008-09. She helped UTSA produce back-to-back Southland Conference Tournament Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time. In 2009, the Roadrunners became the first No. 15-seed in the history of the NCAA Women's Division I Tournament to push a No. 2-seed to overtime, eventually falling to Baylor 87-82.

She owns UTSA career records for assists (693), rebounds (990), games played (123) and games started (113) and the single-season record for assists (221/2008-09).

Gibbs is one of just six players in program history with 1,000 points and 500 rebounds and the only player to top 1,400 points and 900 rebounds.

In addition to her impact on the UTSA record books, Gibbs earned several Southland accolades. In 2006 she became the third player in program history to be named the league's Freshman of the Year after averaging 7.3 points, 7.1 rebounds and 4.9 assists per contest.

Gibbs was named second-team all-conference as a sophomore before finishing her career as a first teamer in 2008 and 2009. In addition, after leading UTSA to its first Southland Tournament crown in 2008, she was named the event's Most Valuable Player. Gibbs became the first player in league history to be named both the Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 and helped lead the Roadrunners to their second straight tournament title.
