SEASON RECAP

The UTSA women's golf team reached new heights in 2010-11, as it claimed its first Southland Conference Championship in the program's sixth year of competition.

The Roadrunners defeated Lamar by seven strokes and placed a total of four players in the top five of the league tournament. Southland Freshman of the Year Fabiola Arriaga led the way for UTSA and tied for first while freshman Taylor Newlin placed fourth and junior Shannon Jungman shared fifth place with sophomore Paola Valerio.

Arriaga wasn't the only Roadrunner to be recognized by the conference for her efforts throughout the year. A record four players were named to the all-conference squads including Valerio, who took home Women's Golfer of the Year honors. Newlin and junior Summer Batiste landed on the second team.

Guiding the squad all season was third-year head coach Carrie Parnaby, who was recognized as the league's Coach of the Year.

Under Parnaby's tutelage, UTSA placed a total of seven players on the all-conference teams in a two-year span, another Southland record.

The Roadrunners qualified for their first NCAA Regional and headed to Auburn, Wash., for the three-day event. After entering as the No. 19 seed, UTSA finished ahead of two nationally ranked squads and took 16th place.

While the season was highlighted by a conference championship and the school's inaugural NCAA Regional appearance, the squad maintained a high level of play throughout the season.

In all, the Roadrunners recorded top-10 finishes in nine of 11 tournaments and top-5 finishes in six events. The team set 18 (287) and 54-hole (886) scoring records at the Mercedes Benz Collegiate Championship, where Valerio also set school records for 18 (66) and 54-hole (212) scores.

The team shows off its Southland Championship rings after a ceremony at Briggs Ranch Golf Club.
