Notes

- UTSA advanced to its second NCAA Regional in just its seventh year of competition after winning the program's second Southland Conference Championship at Vaaler Creek Golf Club, April 16-18, in Blanco, Texas. The Roadrunners defeated host Texas State by five strokes and posted the best team score in the first (+2, 290) and third (+12, 300) rounds.
- UTSA became the second Southland women's golf team to successfully defend its conference title. Lamar (2006-07) is the only other squad to win back-to-back league championships.
- Senior Shannon Jungman became the second individual conference champion in program history after edging out teammate Fabiola Arriaga with a 217 (+1). It was the first collegiate tournament victory for the Pflugerville native, who led the event from start to finish. Arriaga finished as the event's runner-up for the second consecutive year after shooting a 220 (+4).
- Sophomore Fabiola Arriaga was named Southland Conference Player of the Year, while Carrie Parnaby picked up her second consecutive Coach of the Year honor. Arriaga, the 2010-11 Southland Freshman of the Year, led the conference in stroke average and recorded seven top-10 finishes on the season.
- The Roadrunners placed four players on the all-conference squads to match last season's league-record total. In addition to Arriaga, Jungman was named to the first team while junior Paola Valerio and sophomore Taylor Newlin earned second-team honors.
- Head Coach Carrie Parnaby has guided a total of 11 all-conference players in the last three seasons, which is a conference record.
- This season the Roadrunners won a program-record four tournaments and notched six top-five finishes overall. UTSA won three of its last five events including back-to-back victories at the Islanders Classic and Insperty Lady Jaguar Intercollegiate.
