Notes

- UTSA advanced to its third consecutive NCAA Regional in just its eighth year of competition after earning the school's first at-large bid to an NCAA postseason event in any sport. The previous two regional appearances came on the heels of a pair of Southland Conference Championships.
- Junior Fabiola Arriaga led the team with a 74.81 stroke average, which broke her own school record of 74.91 set last season. The Torreon, Mexico, native recorded a WAC-leading 71.92 stroke average and three top-10 finishes in the fall.
- Arriaga picked up her third straight first-team all-conference nod and became the first player in program history to do so. Senior Paola Valerio and junior Taylor Newlin earned second-team all-conference laurels as the Roadrunners matched Denver's league-high three honorees.
- Valerio ended her collegiate career with her best finish in three NCAA Regional appearances. The Mexico City native tied for 30th place at this year's event. In addition, she is the first player in program history to be named first or second-team all-conference in all four seasons of her career.
- The Roadrunners recorded four top-five finishes this season, with their best mark coming in a third-place tie at The Alamo Invitational (Oct. 28-30). UTSA set a school record with a 54-hole score of one-under-par 863 (290-283-290) at the event.
- UTSA reached No. 45 and No. 46 on the Golfweek and golffstat.com polls, respectively, for its highest marks to end the regular season.
- Head Coach Carrie Parnaby has guided a total of 14 all-conference players in the last four seasons.
